RE: Speaking Invitation
 St. Thomas More Guild
 Annual Luncheon
 Buffalo, New York
 January - May 1988

President of the St. Thomas More Guild, James T. Shed, has invited you on behalf of the Buffalo area Catholic lawyers' organization to be the guest speaker at their annual luncheon anytime during January through May. The format and topic of the address are for you to choose as well as press coverage. You could expect an audience of approximately 800 area lawyers, judges, and civic leaders.

St. Thomas More Guild is an association of some 320 lawyers and judges in Western New York. Although most of their members are Catholic, the membership is open to lawyers of all faiths. Previous speakers have been Governor Mario Cuomo and the Honorable Joseph W. Bellacosa, Associate Judge of the New York State Court of Appeals. The program also includes a presentation of the St. Thomas More Award to a local attorney who exemplifies the ideals of Thomas More.

Since your schedule already is heavily committed for the spring, I recommend that you decline this invitation. If you agree, attached is a letter of regret for your signature.

Dear Mr. Shed:

Many thanks for your invitation to be the guest speaker at the St. Thomas More Guild annual luncheon sometime in the spring of 1988. My schedule is heavily committed and I must decline the honor of speaking to the members of your organization.

STAT Bill Baker has advised me that you are a friend of [redacted] was one of my most able assistants at the FBI and I miss his hard work and good sense of humor.

I congratulate you on the presidency of the Guild and wish you a most successful term of office.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Judge Webster:

I am writing on behalf of the Buffalo area Catholic lawyers' organization to invite you to be guest speaker at our annual luncheon in 1988.

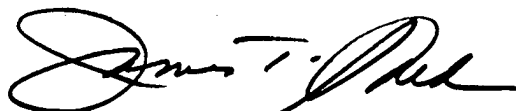

Your commitment to the legal profession and to public service challenges each of us entrusted with the stewardship of our legal system. Like Thomas More's, your life and career demonstrate that fundamental moral principles need not be excluded from the governance of a free people.

Last year we were honored to have had Governor Mario M. Cuomo address our annual luncheon. This year the Honorable Joseph W. Bellacosa, Associate Judge of the New York State Court of Appeals, was our guest speaker. Lawyers, judges, and public officials of all faiths are invited to our luncheons. We can assure you a large and very warm welcome to Buffalo.

Traditionally our luncheon is held in the Spring. Aware of the great demands on your time, we are most willing to schedule the luncheon at your convenience any time during the months of January to May, inclusive.

We respectfully await your reply.

Sincerely,

James T. Shed
